SHORT DESCRIPTION

The OX-ON Comfort 9301 is an affordable and cut-resistant (cut C) glove for carpenters, mechanics, or people working in similar fields. The glove is a finger-dipped knitted glove made of polyester and elastane, which makes it extremely durable and flexible. A special PU coating and cut-resistant fibers protect your hands while you work. With the Cut Comfort 9301, you can feel safely protected when working with sharp objects.
