Product Description

Bambo Nature Wet Wipes are made of 100% viscose and are a really good alternative to a daily bath, which also has a gentle effect on the skin. The wet wipes are for personal care and developed specially for babies' delicate skin, but can be used by all age groups. The wet wipes have a soft texture that feels comfortable even on sensitive and exposed skin areas. They can be used over the whole body and remove dirt easily and effectively. At the same time, they are hygienic as they are disposable. When you choose our plastic-free wet wipes, you are not only choosing a really good product in terms of body care and body wash – you are also choosing a product that strives to take the environment into consideration.
