Product Description

Bambo Nature Wet Wipes are made from a polyester and viscose mix and are a really good alternative to the traditional bath using water and soap, especially for newborn babies. The wet wipes are for personal care and developed specially for babies' delicate skin, but can be used by all ages. They can be used to clean the whole body and remove impurities easily and effectively, and they are hygienic as they are disposable. Our Bambo Nature Wet Wipes clean and moisturize effectively, while having a soft texture that feels comfortable on the skin.
