Product Description

Bambo Nature Aqua Wet Wipes are made with 99% water and made from 100% VEOCEL™ viscose fibres, offering a skin-friendly alternative to daily bathing. VEOCEL™ fibres are wood-based and sourced from renewable resources, combining environmental responsibility with outstanding skin compatibility. Thanks to their naturally smooth and fine surface, VEOCEL™ fibres provide a particularly soft and gentle texture – ideal for sensitive skin. In combination with the mild water-based lotion, these wipes have been specially developed for babies' delicate skin, but are equally suitable for people of all ages. The wipes effectively remove impurities from the entire body without causing irritation and leave the skin feeling clean, refreshed, and cared for – even in sensitive or exposed areas.
